WENTWORTH PARK'S NEW BIG PLAYBOX

This bright, colourful metal box is packed with various items for unstructured play for kids of all ages! It's tough, safe, and easy to open, and you'll spot it in Wentworth Park this summer. Usage Guidelines:

- Put everything back when you're done playing.
- Close the lid to keep things safe and dry.
- Got extra gear? Donate new or gently used items to keep the fun going!

This community pilot project is a collaboration between the SouthEast Regional Service Commission, Riverview High School Art Class students, and the Town of Riverview.

LES FINS DE SIECLES- SEA SHANTIES (BILINGUAL)

Les Fins de Siècles set off full-steam ahead from their home port in Caen with their trademark cheeky energy and a spirited repertoire of celtic folk and neo-traditional shanties. Dance to the rhythm of the banjo, the fiddle, the harmonica, the clarinet. Swing with the guitar and double bass. Discover the epic tales of Jean Bart and other famous privateers. And, of course, sing along with the call-and-response work songs!

SIGNAL HILL

Signal Hill is a four-piece acoustic guitar based band with strong emphasis on four part vocal harmony. Hailing from Newfoundland this band is revered throughout the country as the quintessential East Coast group. This has been achieved by expanding their repertoire beyond that of standard traditional songs to celebrating music across the decades and genres. Their arrangements are now woven into the fabric of East Canadian culture.
