SNOW SCULPTURE CHALLENGE

FEBRUARY 4-7

Your front yard or neighbourhood park!

It's back with a twist! All you need to get started is snow, a bucket and spoon, and a little creativity! Let's take the roof off winter and get outside! Set, sculpt, snap a photo and enter your frozen creation into any of the following categories:

1

Creative Snow Sculpture - Showcase your snow sculpting talents by making anything you want! Prizes awarded by a panel of community judges.

2

Bird Snow Sculpture - This is an easy and fun way to participate by sculpting a bird. Whether it be a penguin, an owl, a goose, a duck, or even an eagle, we're challenging you to get creative!

3

Voter's Choice NEW - All snow sculptures entered into this category will be featured on a digital map on the website and voted on by the community.

*For complete challenge details including snow sculpting tips, prizes and how to receive a Snow Sculpting Kit, please visit townofriverview.ca/snowchallenge

PRIZES

Dozens of prizes up for grabs in each category including (5) Winter Adventure Getaways to Alma (two-night stay in a heated yurt at Fundy National Park); Vermont Castings Low Smoke Fire Pit; gift cards to local businesses and outdoor recreation prizes.

RIVERVIEW LIONS COMMUNITY BINGO

Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 5-6 • Wednesday, Feb. 9 • Saturday, Feb. 12
Take your bubble for a ride around town to find the bingo numbers posted in local business windows! It's a new game every day. Players will have a chance to receive a $50 gift card to the participating business of their choice. Good luck!

Visit townofriverview.ca/bingo for full details.

GEOCACHING CHALLENGE

This initiative is proudly organized by Cache Up NB's community volunteers. Find each Riverview Winter Carnival Geocache and complete the geocacheport using the codes inside the caches to earn 1 of 100 limited edition trackable coins. This year's winter design is inspired by the Mill Creek Nature Park lookout, also known as one of the Fundy Biosphere Reserve's 50 Amazing Places.

EXPLORE ALBERT COUNTY SNOWSHOE SERIES

Albert County

Bundle up and take a bubble friend on a fresh air adventure! Albert County is home to a wide variety of snowshoeing opportunities for beginners, intermediates and advanced. Experience the crisp, starry skies of Mill Creek Nature Park, explore the Wabanaki-Acadian forest, discover the new trail network at Farmer Brown's Greenhouse, or rise and shine for a golden hour guided snowshoe. Proudly presented by Maritime Detours. Visit riverviewwintercarnival.ca for a full list of guided tours, virtual presentations and self-guided snowshoeing activities organized by community partners.

TOBOGANNING, SKATING, SNOWSHOEING & SNOWBOARDING

Winter Wonderland Park, Quinn Court

Home to the best winter activities in one convenient location, Winter Wonderland Park is the place to be when the snow flies! Bring your helmet for a skate around the outdoor oval under a lit path and starry skies. Test all three toboggan chutes on the most thrilling snow hill in southeastern New Brunswick or snowboard down the west side of the hill! Snowshoe the trails to discover the footbridges linking to the Dobson Trail.
